

Pauta Musical para Coral

The image displays four identical sets of blank musical staves, arranged vertically. Each set consists of two systems of staves. The top system of each set has three staves, and the bottom system has four staves. A large right-facing curly bracket on the left side of each set groups all seven staves together, indicating they are intended for a choir. The staves are completely blank, with no notes or markings.