

---

Pauta Musical para Coral

The image displays four identical sets of musical staves, arranged vertically. Each set consists of two systems of staves. The top system of each set has three staves, and the bottom system has four staves. A vertical brace is positioned to the left of each system, spanning all staves in that system. The staves are empty, providing a template for musical notation.