

This section contains six pairs of blank musical staves, each pair consisting of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. Each staff is a five-line system. To the left of each pair of staves is a vertical line with two small square boxes, one for each staff, intended for a key signature or time signature.

